PART II – ADMINISTRATION OF THE NATIONAL RETIREMENT BENEFITS FUND¹⁴

3 National Retirement Benefits Fund¹⁵

- (1) There shall be a National Retirement Benefits Fund operating in accordance with this Act.
- (2) The Fund shall be an autonomous body with the responsibility of implementing this Act.
- (3) The Fund shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have all the rights and duties of a body corporate.
- (4) The Fund may sue and be sued in its corporate name and may enter into contract and may acquire, purchase or lease property, and may convey, assign, transfer, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property or any interest vested in the Fund upon such terms as the Board determines to be appropriate in the circumstances of each transaction

4 Supervision of the Fund¹⁶

- (1) The general direction and supervision of the Fund shall vest in the Board of Directors.
- (2) The Directors shall act in good faith, in the best interest of the Fund and in accordance with this Act.

5 Board of Directors¹⁷

- (1) The Board of Directors shall consist of 7 members appointed by the Minister in accordance with regulations made under this Act.
- (2) The Minister shall appoint one of the Directors to be Chairman of the Board, and another to be Deputy Chairman.
- (3) A director shall hold office for a term of 3 years, and may be reappointed after the expiry of his term of office.
- (4) No person may be appointed as a Director if he is over the age of 70 years.

Provided that a Director who attains the age of 70 years during his term of office shall continue to be a Director until the expiry of that term of office.

- (5) Directors shall be paid such remuneration, travelling and subsistence allowances as the Board may determine in consultation with the Remuneration Authority.
- (6) The Chief Executive Officer shall perform the function of secretary of the Board.
- (7) Upon cessation of office of a Director, other than an expiry of his full term of office, the Minister shall appoint a replacement Director, in accordance with the regulations, for the remaining part of the term of the former Director.

6 Resignation, disqualification and termination of office

- (1) A Director shall hold office until the date —
 - (a) of his resignation by notice in writing to the Chairman or, in the case of the resignation of the Chairman, by notice in writing to the Minister;
 - (b) of his death;
 - (c) on which he is disqualified under subsection (2);¹⁸
 - (d) on which he is certified as mentally or physically incapable of fulfilling the office of Director;
 - (e) of his removal in accordance with any procedures adopted by the Board for the appointment or removal of Directors for persistent non-attendance at duly called meetings of the Board:

Provided that a Director shall be deemed to have vacated his office upon his failure to attend three consecutive duly called meetings of the Board without the prior permission of the Chairman; and

- (f) of expiry of his term of office.
- (2) No person shall be appointed or remain a Director —
 - (a) who is an undischarged bankrupt;¹⁹
 - (b) who has been disabled under clause 23 of the Constitution;²⁰
 - (c) who is or becomes a member of the Legislative Assembly;
 - (d) who has, in the case of a person having professional qualifications, been disqualified or suspended from practicing his profession by the order of any competent authority; or
 - (e) who is a member or representative of a complying scheme.²¹

7 Rights and duties of the Board

- (1) The Board shall perform the following duties to —
 - (a) advise the Minister on appropriate plans for the implementation and development of the Fund both on its own initiative and in response to specific requests from the Minister;

- (b) manage the finances of the Fund as Trustee and approve the income and expenditure accounts;²²
 Provided that the Board members shall not —
- (i) make profit for themselves from the Fund;
 - (ii) put themselves in a position where there is a conflict between their duty to the members and their own personal interests; or
 - (iii) take advantage of information gained as a Trustee;
- (c) appoint staff for the administration of the Fund consisting of —
- (i) a Chief Executive Officer with such duties as the Board may delegate; and
 - (ii) such other staff as are, in opinion of the Board, necessary for the efficient and effective administration of the Fund, including inspectors having the powers set out in section 26.
- (d) adopt personnel and remuneration structures for the organisation that are not less favourable in their entirety than those applying to public servants:
 Provided further that the Fund shall be an employer within the meaning of this Act;²³
- (e) determine applications for exemption by retirement benefit schemes in existence at the date of introduction of this Act and to review the reports submitted by approved complying schemes;
 - (f) determine benchmarks for the Fund's operation;
 - (g) maintain communications with registered employers and employees;
 - (h) consider and make recommendations to the Minister relating to changes in contributions or benefits under the Act;
 - (i) co-opt suitably qualified persons to advise the Board and sub-committees established by the Board and to incur expenditures for this purpose;
 - (j) determine the Fund's administrative expenses on submissions by the CEO;
 - (k) consider and recommend draft Regulations and rules for approval;
 - (l) arrange for actuarial review of the Fund as required and at intervals of not more than five years;²⁴
 - (m) submit to the Minister annual reports on the operation of the Fund; and
 - (n) do any other act authorized under this Act.
- (2) In any instance of submitting proposals to the Minister for changes in contributions or benefits, or commenting on any such proposals referred to it, the Board shall attach an actuarial report, or its equivalent, on the financial implications of the proposals.

8 Procedures of the Board

- (1) Subject to this Act and any Regulations made under it, the Board may regulate its own procedures and shall have the power to make rules for the conduct of its proceedings.
- (2) Board meetings shall be convened at least once every two months to consider the Fund's performance and other matters within the responsibility of the Board.²⁵
- (3) The Chairman has the right to convene meetings at any time as required to carry out the Board's duties expeditiously.
- (4) Any four Directors present at a meeting shall constitute a quorum.
- (5) Resolutions of the Board shall be carried by majority voting and in the case of an equal number of votes; the Chairman shall have a deciding vote.
- (6) At the absence of the Chairman at a meeting of the Board, the Deputy Chairman shall be Acting Chairman for that meeting, but if the Chairman and Deputy Chairman are both absent the Directors present shall appoint an Acting Chairman for that meeting.²⁶
- (7) A Director shall not communicate or reveal to any person or any organisation any facts or information of any kind acquired by him as a member of the Board except as may be required for the due discharge of his duties as Director.
- (8) A Director having directly or indirectly by himself, his spouse or children, or any other person, any interest in agenda items or subjects to be discussed by the Board or in Committees of the Board of which he is member shall disclose to the Board or the Committee, as the case may be, the fact of his interest and the nature thereof as soon as practicable after the relevant fact has come to his knowledge and shall absent himself with the permission of the Chairman when such agenda items come under consideration.
- (9) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a Director may undertake any professional work for the Fund and receive remuneration there from.²⁷

PART III - FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

9 Fund's Monies²⁸

- (1) For the purpose of the Act, the Fund's monies shall consist of —
 - (a) all contributions required to be made under this Act;
 - (b) moneys earned or arising from any investment, property or other transactions, mortgages, charges or rents vested in the Fund;
 - (c) any fines, surcharges, or other payments due to the Fund under this Act;

- (d) any sums paid by the Government, or other body or bodies, to finance the initial implementation of the Act or to enable it to meet all financial obligations specified in subsection (2); and
 - (e) any other income or payments due to the Fund.
- (2) The Fund's monies shall be expended for the purpose of —
- (a) meeting all payments required to be made under this Act;²⁹
 - (b) investments under this Act, including the expenses incurred in undertaking the investments;
 - (c) payment of life insurance benefit;
 - (d) meeting all expenses, costs and expenditures properly incurred or accepted by the Board in the execution of its powers and duties; and
 - (e) repayment of advances or loans obtained by the Board for the implementation of this Act.

10 Purpose of the Fund³⁰

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Fund shall provide benefits in respect of the retirement, permanent total disablement or the death of a member of the Fund, as specified in this Act and Regulations.
- (2) The Fund shall maintain individual accounts for each member and shall credit all contributions paid by and on behalf of the member and any interest as specified in section 15 for the purpose of subsection (1).
- (3) The Fund shall pay benefits, other than life insurance, from individual accounts of a member in the form of instalments or a lump-sum or a combination of both.
- (4) Life insurance benefits shall be payable in lump-sums from the operating account of the Fund.
- (5) The Fund shall deduct from the account of each active member, other than a voluntary contributor, in respect of each financial year the premium for life insurance as may be prescribed by the Board and these premiums shall be credited to the operating of the Fund.

11 Bank accounts of the Fund

- (1) The Fund shall establish and maintain such bank account or accounts, as determined by the Board, for the purpose of the financial management of the Fund and its general revenue.
- (2) The bank account of the Fund shall be maintained at the National Reserve Bank of Tonga, or other bank licensed by the National Reserve Bank of Tonga or other bank licensed to operate in the Kingdom, or in the case of overseas accounts, those banks approved by the National Reserve Bank of Tonga.

- (3) The Fund's account or accounts signatories shall be such persons as may be authorised by the Board for that purpose.

12 Investment for the Fund

- (1) The Board shall invest all monies available for investment as prescribed by Regulations.
- (2) The Board shall devise investment strategies for investments of the Fund, including investments in other countries that meet criteria for trustee management of retirement benefit funds.

Provided that the Board shall request approval for undertaking overseas investments from the National Reserve Bank of Tonga and that any such approval shall be given for periods of not less than one year.

13 Exemption from tax

No tax, duty, levy, or any other Government impost shall be payable by the Fund on Fund monies, including investment earnings.³¹

14 Administrative expenses

- (1) All expenses properly incurred in the implementation of this Act and the administration of the Fund shall be paid out of the Fund's monies.³²
- (2) The cost incurred in implementing the Act and administering the Fund shall be deducted from the income of investments or as prescribed by Regulations.³³

15 Declaration of the rate of interest

- (1) Subject to this Act, at or before the end of each financial year, the Board shall declare a rate of interest in respect of that year that shall be credited at such rates to the total amounts recorded as in each member's account, including voluntary accounts, at the commencement of the financial year, as prescribed by Regulations.³⁴
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) where benefit entitlement arises under the provisions of this Act and is to be calculated, interest shall be first credited to the accounts in respect of the period from the beginning of the financial year to the end of the month preceding the date of entitlement in accordance with the rate of interest declared by the Board for the preceding financial year, regardless of the fact that the rate of interest subsequently declared by the Board in respect of that financial year may be greater or less than this rate.

16 Advances by the Government

- (1) If the Fund is unable at any time to pay any sum that it is liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, the Board shall submit a request for assistance to the Minister with full information on the financial shortfall and proposals for the repayment of any future bridging loans from Government.³⁵
- (2) The Board shall enter into an agreement with the Government on a repayment schedule in respect of any sums so advanced by Government.³⁶

17 Auditing of accounts

- (1) The Board shall have accounts prepared, within two months of the end of the financial year, or within such further time of not more than one month as the Minister may approve, in such form and including additional information, statements and reports as required by the Minister in respect of that year:
Provided that the Minister may request the preparation of interim accounts for any period as he may determine.
- (2) The account shall be submitted to the Auditor-General or another approved auditor for an audit to be completed within six months of the end of the financial year or of the period covered by the accounts, if shorter.
- (3) The Minister shall within ten working days of completion of the audit cause the accounts to be submitted for tabling in the Legislative Assembly during its session on the first available sitting day.
- (4) The reports under subsection (1) shall include a report by the Board on the investments of the Fund.

18 Actuarial review³⁷

- (1) At intervals of five years, or such shorter periods as the Board may determine, an actuarial review shall be conducted into the operation of the Fund.
- (2) The actuarial report shall be considered by the Board and forwarded to the Minister with the recommendations of the Board.
- (3) The Fund shall provide members with information on the findings and recommendations of the actuarial review.

PART IV - CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE FUND³⁸

19 Liability to contribute³⁹

- (1) Subject to this Act, every employer having one or more employees, other than those in respect of whom the Board has issued a certificate of exemption, and his employees shall be liable to contribute to the Fund.
- (2) Every employer and employee to whom this Act applies shall register with the Fund within such time and in such manner as prescribed by the Regulations.⁴⁰
- (3) Any person registered as an employer who intends to cease being an employer shall notify the Fund as soon as practicable.
- (4) Where employees are employed through a sub-contractor, the following shall apply —
 - (a) the contract between the principal employer and the sub-contractor shall include the name and address of the employer who is responsible under the Act for the registration of employees who are assigned for work under the contract and the payment of contributions;
 - (b) the responsibility of the principal employer may be transferred to the sub contractor or another person through specific provisions of the relevant contract, but, in the event of a default on the part of the sub-contractor or other person, as determined by the Fund, the principal employer shall be liable in all respects in respect of the employees concerned; and
 - (c) the relevant contract shall be made available for inspection whenever requested by an inspector appointed under section 26 of this Act or other competent official and a copy shall be lodged with the Fund if requested in writing by the CEO.

20 Payment of contributions

- (1) A contribution consisting of both the employer's contribution and the employee's contribution shall be payable by the employer for each month in respect of the whole or part of which wages are payable to the employee and not otherwise.
- (2) The contribution shall be calculated on the amount of wages payable to such employee by such employer at the rates specified in the Second Schedule.
- (3) Subject to this Act, all contributions shall be payable monthly unless otherwise prescribed by Regulations.
- (4) All monthly contributions shall be payable in the end of every month, but where the employment is for a period of less than a month, on the last day of the employment.

- (5) Where two or more contributions are paid in respect of the employment of one insured person for the same month they shall be counted as single monthly contribution.

21 Payment of contributions

- (1) Subject to this Act, the employer shall be entitled to deduct the employee's contribution from the employee's wages for payment to the Fund and notice of such deduction shall be furnished to the employee in writing:

Provided that —

- (a) no such deduction shall be made from any wages other than that which related to the period or part or the period in respect of which the contribution is payable; and
 - (b) where the employer has failed to deduct and pay the employee's contribution under this section, the employer shall be responsible for paying the employee's outstanding contribution with no right of recovery from the employee.
- (2) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, the employer shall not be entitled to deduct the employer's contribution from any wages payable to an employee or otherwise to recover it from him.
 - (3) Any sum deducted by the employer from wages under this Act shall be deemed to have been entrusted to him by the employee for the purpose of paying the contribution in respect of which it was deducted.

22 Recovery of contributions from an intermediate employer

- (1) An employer, who has paid a contribution in respect of an employee employed by or through an intermediate employer or sub-contractor, shall be entitled to recover the amount of the contribution so paid (that is to say the employer's contribution as well as the employee's contribution, if any) from the intermediate employer or sub-contractor, as the case may be, either by deduction from any amount payable to him by the principal employer under any contract, or as a debt payable by the intermediate employer or sub-contractor.
- (2) The intermediate employer or sub-contractor shall be entitled to recover the employee's contribution from the employee employed by or through him by deduction from wages and not otherwise.

23 Late paid contributions

Contributions shall be payable in respect of an employee from the date the employee enters into insurable employment and such contributions are payable as arrears even though the employment to which this Act applies or the employees have not been registered with the Fund;

Provided that —

- (a) An employer who has paid arrears of contributions in respect of an employee will only be entitled to recover from the wages payable, notwithstanding the proviso to section 21(1), the employee's share of the contributions due within a maximum of the last proceeding six months prior to the date of payment; and
- (b) The Fund shall arrange for the deduction of such arrears of the employee's share by the employer over a period for the purpose of avoiding financial hardship to the employee.⁴¹

24 Method of payment of contributions

The Minister may prescribe method of payment of contributions by Regulations.

25 Employers to furnish returns

- (1) Every employer shall submit to the Fund, such schedules and returns relating to persons employed by him as required by Regulations.
- (2) The Fund may require an employer or any other person where it has reason to believe that a return should have been submitted, to furnish such particulars as it may consider necessary to determine the extent, if any, of liability to contribute to the Fund on behalf of the employees.
- (3) Every employer shall maintain such registers and records in respect of employment as may be prescribed by Regulations.⁴²

26 Appointment and powers of inspectors⁴³

- (1) The Board shall appoint inspectors and issue them with identification.
- (2) Inspectors shall have the power to —
 - (a) enter at reasonable times, all premises where a person or persons are believed to be engaged as employees, and any other place only with a court order;
 - (b) examine all documents relevant to participation in the Fund and if necessary to remove such documents as are essential to the investigations;
 - (c) question and take statements in writing from persons, including employers and their staff and employees;
 - (d) give official warnings to persons who are in breach of this Act and regulations made under this Act; and

- (e) compile official reports and statements of their investigations.
- (3) An employer, within normal working hours shall produce for inspection the records and copies of contribution schedules or any other documents relating to liability to contribute, for inspection if requested by an inspector.

27 Determination of contribution liability in certain cases

- (1) The Fund may determine on the basis of information available to it, the amount of contributions payable in respect of the employees of an employer where —
 - (a) the employer has defaulted under this Act; and
 - (b) the Fund has been obstructed in the exercise of its functions.
- (2) The determination made by the Fund under subsection (1) shall be sufficient proof of a debt for recovery under section 28.⁴⁴

28 Recovery of contributions

- (1) Any contribution or other amount payable under this Act may be recovered as a debt due to the Fund.
- (2) A liquidator shall be required to inform the Fund in writing within fourteen days of his appointment or assumption of this responsibility and shall not, without leave of the CEO, make any distribution of such property, business or estate until receipt of a claim by the Fund.
- (3) The CEO shall notify the liquidator in writing of the amount of any unpaid contributions and payable from the assets in the possession or control of the liquidator and such notice shall be served by the Fund within two months of being served with a notice under subsection (2).⁴⁵
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) a liquidator shall set aside out of the assets and the proceeds of sale of any assets of the employer the amount notified by the CEO under subsection (3) to the extent that such assets are available for this purpose, and shall be liable to the extent of the amount set aside for the contribution due by the disposal of the employer's asset(s).
- (5) Nothing in subsection (4) shall prevent the liquidator from paying any debt that has a legal priority over the contributions referred to in that subsection.
- (6) The liquidator shall before distributing any assets under his control, obtain from the CEO a certificate to the effect that the contributions payable under the provisions of this Act by such person out of any estate under his control have been paid to the satisfaction of the Board.
- (7) If any distribution is made by the liquidator without first obtaining a certificate under the provisions of subsection (3), then such person shall be personally liable for any unpaid contributions together with any surcharge payable under the provisions of section 29.
